

ArtsLink Awards 2013: Grant Opportunities for Artists & Arts Managers

New this year!

We are happy to announce that we have expanded the list of eligible countries for all ArtsLink Awards to include Egypt, Israel, Lebanon, Palestinian territories and Syria. We welcome applications from artist and arts manager from 37 countries.

ArtsLink Residencies

Deadline: October 15, 2012

Structured residencies for arts professionals in dance, music, theater and literature from the eligible countries listed below. The five-week residencies will take place in fall 2013. ArtsLink places Fellows at established US non-profit arts organizations and covers associated living, working, travel, and health insurance costs. Applicants do not need to have contacts with organizations in the US to apply for this program, but working knowledge of English is required. The visual and media arts deadline for Fall 2014 Residencies will be October 15, 2013.

ArtsLink Independent Projects

December 3, 2012

Project grants in all disciplines enable artists and arts managers from the eligible countries to carry out self-directed projects in the US. Applicants must have a letter of invitation from a non-profit organization or individual in the US to enter this competition.
